

BAAQMD Building Appliances Rules Implementation Working Group Meeting #6

Tuesday, August 20, 2024

1:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Zoom Webinar Information

- Please click the link below to join the webinar: <https://kearnswest.zoom.us/j/89782212652>
- Webinar ID: 897 8221 2652
- Call-in options
  - 833 548 0282 US Toll Free
  - 833 928 4608 US Toll Free
  - 833 928 4609 US Toll Free
  - 833 928 4610 US Toll Free

Meeting Objective

- Provide updates and receive feedback on IWG work and progress made over the last quarter.

Agenda

Item	Agenda Item	Description	Speaker	Time
1	Welcome	Welcome & review agenda. Provide instructions/ expectations to IWG members vs. public on how to ask questions, engage in discussion.	Veronica Cummings, Kearns & West (K&W)	1:00 – 1:05 p.m.
2	June/July Subcommittee Summaries	1. Equity Subcommittee take-aways 2. Technical Subcommittee take-aways	Rich Chien, BAAQMD Planning & Climate Division  Amy Dao, BAAQMD Planning & Climate Division	1:05 – 1:20 p.m.
3	Rincon/E3: Grid Related Impacts report	Learn about Rincon and E3's report on grid related impacts from the zero-NOx appliance rules, including take-aways on capacity impacts, reliability, and long-term planning.	Rincon/E3	1:20 – 2:05 p.m.
4	Panel Discussion: Education and Incentives Access	Presenters from the Switch is On, the California Energy Commission, and Silicon Valley Clean Energy will discuss ongoing as well as upcoming programs and pilots. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>What are current outreach efforts to educate new consumers on electrification and heat pumps?</li> <li>For major state and IRA incentive programs, what lessons have been learned and will be utilized to increase access for low- and moderate-income households?</li> <li>How can innovative services and products help residents and contractors tackle zero-NOx appliance projects and incentive applications?</li> </ul>	1. Switch Is On 2. CA Energy Commission 3. Silicon Valley Clean Energy	2:05 – 3:35 p.m.
5	2024 Milestones & Next Steps	Remaining 2024 Calendar review Considerations for IWG 2.0	Amy Dao, BAAQMD Planning & Climate Division	3:35 -3:40 p.m.
6	Public Discussion		All	3:40 – 3:55 p.m.
7	Close	Thanks Upcoming Survey for IWG Members	Veronica Cummings, Kearns & West	3:55 – 4:00 p.m.